

Jesus, the King of all Kings

♩ = 138

D G D Bm

Phil Waldo
1997

Jes - us is King and he is the Lord Al - might - y God the

This musical line starts in D major. It consists of two measures of quarter notes followed by a measure of eighth notes. The lyrics "Jes - us is King" are on the first measure, "and he is the Lord" on the second. The key changes to B minor for the third measure, indicated by a Bm chord above the staff.

Em A D G D

one we a - dore O come let us sing and lift up his name

This line begins in E major (Em). It has three measures of eighth notes. The lyrics "one we a - dore" are on the first measure, "O come let us sing" on the second, and "and lift up his name" on the third. The key returns to D major at the end.

D A D G

Je - sus the King of all kings He is the mighty one he is the

This line starts in D major. It has three measures of eighth notes. The lyrics "Je - sus the King of all kings" are on the first measure, "He is the mighty one" on the second, and "he is the" on the third. The key changes to G major for the final note.

D A D

ho - ly one he is the Prince of Peace He is the

This line starts in D major. It has three measures of eighth notes. The lyrics "ho - ly one" are on the first measure, "he is the Prince of Peace" on the second, and "He is the" on the third.

G D A

Ev - er - last - ing Fa - ther He will reign for all e -

This line starts in G major. It has three measures of eighth notes. The lyrics "Ev - er - last - ing" are on the first measure, "Fa - ther" on the second, and "He will reign for all" on the third. The key changes to A major for the final note.

D A/E D/F# G D

ter - ni - ty He is the Al - pha and the O - me - ga He is

This line starts in D major. It has three measures of eighth notes. The lyrics "ter - ni - ty He is the" are on the first measure, "Al - pha and the" on the second, and "O - me - ga He is" on the third. The key changes to A major (A/E) and then to D major (D/F#).

A G D

Je - sus the King of all kings.

This line starts in A major. It has three measures of eighth notes. The lyrics "Je - sus the King of all" are on the first measure, and "kings." on the second. The key changes to D major for the final note.